Rt. 8, Frederick, Md. 21701

Dear Ellise Givan

Thanks for taking the time for that thoughtful letter, forwarded by Black Journal.

And I do appreciate the kind things you said.

However, one caution: do not in your mind fix responsibility for what should not have happened and did on Earl Warren exclusively.

He presided. His staff did most of the Commission's work. But the federal investigative agencies came close to foreclosing any other end.

At the same time I want you to know that my more recent rescues from oblivion leave no doubt of anyone's innocence. Warren and the others on the Commission all knew what was happening to them- from before their first hearing.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
